

THE 12 WAYPOINTS

The belief system behind the MindSystem. These are not rules. They are the operating system.

MazePerformance.ai · mazeperformance.ai

Every section of the MindSystem program is anchored to one or more of these Waypoints. They are the beliefs that shape every conversation, every framework, and every tool inside the Athlete Compass and the Parent Compass. Read them before the season starts. Return to them when you lose your footing.

WAYPOINTS 1 — 6

1

WAYPOINT

The family is the athlete's first performance environment.

The home shapes how she competes. Before the gym ever does.

2

WAYPOINT

Your perspective shapes every conversation, every decision, every outcome.

Examine it. Or it shapes her — without you realizing it.

3

WAYPOINT

Outcome goals are the destination. Milestone goals are the road.

You cannot get there by skipping the road.

4

WAYPOINT

The process is the point. The outcome is the byproduct.

When the process is right, outcomes take care of themselves.

5

WAYPOINT

Emotional contagion in the stands is not love — it's leakage.

One dissatisfied parent goes viral faster than any highlight reel.

6

WAYPOINT

A confident athlete is not built on a court. She's built at home.

The court is where she performs. Home is where she believes.

7

WAYPOINT

The system around the athlete matters more than the athlete's talent.

Talent gets you in the room. The system keeps you there.

8

WAYPOINT

You were never the problem. But you are part of the solution.

Awareness without accountability is just guilt with better vocabulary.

9

WAYPOINT

Awareness without a framework doesn't create change — it creates guilt.

The framework is what gives awareness somewhere to go.

10

WAYPOINT

You vs. You. That's the only comparison that matters.

Her progress is measured against herself — not her teammates.

11

WAYPOINT

Your coach's full attention belongs on your athlete.

Don't make them manage your emotions too.

12

WAYPOINT

The first time you talk to your coach shouldn't be when something's wrong.

Set your metrics before the season. Make every conversation accountability.

"These are not rules. They are the beliefs that shape everything."
