INGREDIENTS

- 2 frozen acai packets
- 1 cup frozen berries (strawberries, blueberries, raspberries) or mango/pineapple
- ½–¾ cup liquid (water, milk alternative, or fruit juice)

TOPPINGS (CHOOSE ANY)

- Granola (about ½ cup per bowl)
- Coconut flakes
- Fresh fruit (banana, strawberries, kiwi, blueberries)
- Drizzle of nutbutter (1–2 tbsp)
- Honey or agave (1 tsp – 1 tbsp)
- Chia seeds

METHOD

- 1 Blend acai packets, frozen fruit, and liquid until thick and creamy. Start with less liquid and add as needed.
- 2 Scoop into bowls.
- 3 Add toppings in colorful rows or fun patterns.

TIP

Keep toppings bite-sized for easier eating.

BEST TIME TO EAT

- ✓ Morning of a competition — natural sugars and carbohydrates give a clean energy base without heaviness
- ✓ Within 1–2 hours before a lighter training session — fast fuel that digests easily
- ✓ Post-practice recovery when combined with a protein topping like nut butter and chia seeds
- ✗ Not right before intense activity — the liquid base and fruit sugars can cause GI discomfort mid-competition if eaten too close to game time
