HEAR THIS ONCE

PRESSURE ISN'T SOMETHING TO
FEAR. IT'S SOMETHING TO LEAN
INTO BECAUSE IT ONLY SHOWS UP
WHERE GROWTH IS POSSIBLE.

Pressure will always teach you something: about yourself, about the situation, or about someone in the situation. Even when things don't go as planned, you walk away knowing something you didn't before.

— PRESSURE IS A SIGN YOU ARE GROWING · MAZEPERFORMANCE

THE PRESSURE REFRAME

PRESSURE IS NOT YOUR ENEMY.
IT IS THE SIGNAL THAT YOU ARE OPERATING OUTSIDE THE ORDINARY.

→ Pressure only lives outside your comfort zone that is exactly where growth happens

→ The discomfort you feel is data, not danger

→ Try this phrase: 'Pressure is a privilege' it creates space between emotion and action

— PRESSURE IS THE PRICE OF OPERATING AT A LEVEL THAT MATTERS.

THE REFRAME

OLD FRAME

Pressure means I might fail. It means the stakes are too high. It means I'm not ready.

NEW FRAME

Pressure means I care. It means I'm in a moment that's worth something. It means I'm in the arena.

THE PRACTICE

Use the phrase 'pressure is a privilege' to create the pause between the emotion and the action.

06 · THE APPLICATION

U S I N G P R E S S U R E

IN PRACTICE

At tryouts, at tournament, at anything that raises the stakes — apply the phrase before the moment.

WATCH FOR

The physical tightening, shallow breath, or mental narrowing that signals pressure has arrived.

THE SHIFT

From pressure as a warning signal to pressure as a welcome signal — you earned this moment.

07 · REMEMBER THIS

SAVE THIS · COME BACK TO IT

PRESSURE IS A PRIVILEGE. IT MEANS
YOU ARE IN A MOMENT THAT MATTERS ENOUGH TO FEEL SOMETHING.

SAVE THIS. COME BACK TO IT.

— THE PRIVILEGE LAW

THIS WEEK

THIS WEEK, PRACTICE THE PHRASE IN ONE PRESSURE MOMENT.

✓ Identify one upcoming situation that will carry pressure: tryout, match, test, performance

✓ Practice the phrase beforehand: 'Pressure is a privilege'

✓ After the moment, debrief: what did you notice? Did the phrase help?

✓ Share the phrase with your athlete and practice it together before the next high-stakes moment

HEAR THIS ONCE

WE HAVE TAUGHT ATHLETES TO AVOID DISCOMFORT AND THEN WE ARE SURPRISED WHEN THEY FREEZE
IN THE MOMENTS THAT MATTER

If your athlete has never practiced being uncomfortable in a structured environment, she has no training to draw from when pressure arrives unexpectedly. The solution is not to reduce pressure. It is to deliberately introduce it.

— PRACTICE THE FEELING BEFORE YOU NEED IT · MAZEPERFORMANCE

THE DISCOMFORT CURRICULUM

COURAGE IS NOT THE ABSENCE OF DISCOMFORT. IT IS THE TRAINED ABILITY TO ACT IN THE PRESENCE OF IT.

- Deliberately introduce small pressure moments in practice settings
- Let athletes fail in low-stakes environments so they have failure experience to draw from
- Build a vocabulary around discomfort: name it, normalize it, use it

— YOU CANNOT TEACH COURAGE IN COMFORTABLE CONDITIONS.

05 · THE BREAKDOWN

THE CURRICULUM

LOW STAKES PRACTICE

Game-point scenarios, public failure moments, unfamiliar drills all build discomfort tolerance.

VOCABULARY

Name the feeling: 'This is pressure. This is discomfort. This is the signal that I'm growing.'

THE MEMORY

When real pressure arrives, the nervous system looks for a memory. Build the right ones.

BUILDING TOLERANCE

IN PRACTICE

Ask coaches to create one deliberate pressure scenario per practice week game point, visible stakes.

WATCH FOR

Whether your athlete leans into the scenario or finds ways to avoid it avoidance is data.

THE SHIFT

From protecting your athlete from pressure to deliberately exposing her to it in safe environments.

02

07 · REMEMBER THIS

SAVE THIS COME BACK TO IT

THE PRESSURE YOU INTRODUCE IN PRACTICE IS THE PRESSURE YOUR ATHLETE WON'T BE SURPRISED BY IN COMPETITION.

SAVE THIS. COME BACK TO IT.

— THE TRAINING LAW

THIS WEEK

THIS WEEK, CREATE ONE DELIBERATE PRESSURE MOMENT.

✓ Design one small pressure scenario for this week's practice

✓ Brief your athlete before: 'This is going to feel uncomfortable. That's the point.'

✓ Debrief after: 'What did you notice? What got easier?'

✓ Build this into a regular practice habit over the next month

Pressure as a Lifelong Skill

HEAR THIS ONCE

MOST ATHLETES EXPERIENCE
TRYOUTS AS A JUDGMENT. THE
MOST PREPARED ATHLETES
EXPERIENCE THEM AS A PERFORMANCE.

Tryout pressure is real and significant. It also contains everything the pressure framework is built for: high stakes, unfamiliar evaluators, uncertain outcomes. This is not a threat it is an elite training environment.

— TRYOUTS ARE PRESSURE SCHOOL · MAZEPERFORMANCE

THE TRYOUT FRAME

REFRAME THE TRYOUT: FROM JUDGMENT EVENT TO PERFORMANCE EVENT. SAME
MOMENT, DIFFERENT NERVOUS SYSTEM.

→ Judgment frame: I am being evaluated. I might fail. I need to be perfect.

→ Performance frame: I am here to show what I can do. I know what I bring.

→ The difference: one collapses under pressure. One uses it.

— PRESSURE SCHOOL ONLY WORKS IF YOU ATTEND WITH AN OPEN CURRICULUM.

05 · THE BREAKDOWN

INSIDE THE TRYOUT

THE STAKES

The athlete who thinks 'this defines me' plays small. The one who thinks 'this shows me' plays free.

THE EVALUATORS

Coaches are looking for composure under pressure as much as skill how does she recover from a mistake?

THE OUTCOME

Regardless of result, every tryout is data about how she performs in pressure environments. That's trainable.

P R E - T R Y O U T P R E P A R A T I O N

IN PRACTICE

Use the phrase: 'I am here to show what I can do' not 'I am here to be picked.'

WATCH FOR

Whether her pre-tryout language is judgment-framed or performance-framed coach accordingly.

THE SHIFT

From focusing on the outcome (making the team) to focusing on the input (what I show up with).

02

07 · REMEMBER THIS

SAVE THIS COME BACK TO IT

YOU CAN'T CONTROL WHETHER YOU
MAKE THE TEAM. YOU CAN CONTROL
WHO WALKS THROUGH THE GYM DOOR.

SAVE THIS. COME BACK TO IT.

— THE PERFORMANCE LAW

THIS WEEK

THIS WEEK, REFRAME THE NEXT HIGH-STAKES MOMENT.

✓ Identify one upcoming high-stakes moment for your athlete: tryout, match, evaluation

✓ Rewrite the narrative from judgment frame to performance frame

✓ Practice the new frame out loud together before the moment arrives

✓ After: debrief what she noticed about her own pressure response

Pressure as a Lifelong Skill

Coming up.

HEAR THIS ONCE

MOST ATHLETES PROCESS PRESSURE
AS FAILURE WHEN THE OUTCOME IS BAD. THE LESSON INSIDE THE PRESSURE GOES UNEXTRACTED.

Pressure is a teacher. But only if you are asking the right questions afterward. The outcome is just the event. The learning is in the review.

— THE LESSON IS IN THE REVIEW · MAZEPERFORMANCE

THE REVIEW

AFTER EVERY HIGH-PRESSURE
MOMENT, THE MOST IMPORTANT
THING IS THE QUESTION YOU ASK ABOUT IT.

→ What did you learn about yourself in that moment?

→ What did you learn about the situation?

→ What did you learn about someone else in it?

— PRESSURE ALWAYS TEACHES SOMETHING. YOUR JOB IS TO EXTRACT THE LESSON.

THE DEBRIEF STRUCTURE

IMMEDIATE

Right after: 'How are you doing?' Not 'what happened.' Space first.

NEXT DAY

'What do you think you learned from that moment?' Open-ended, no coaching attached.

WEEK LATER

'Has anything from that situation shown up in your practice this week?'

THE PRESSURE REVIEW

IN PRACTICE

After the next pressure moment match, evaluation, hard practice use the three debrief questions.

WATCH FOR

Whether her answers go deeper over time that's the sign that she is learning to extract lessons.

THE SHIFT

From outcome obsession to learning obsession the athlete who learns from every moment compounds faster.

07 · REMEMBER THIS

SAVE THIS COME BACK TO IT

PRESSURE THAT IS NOT REVIEWED IS PRESSURE WASTED. THE LESSON IS ALWAYS IN THERE GO GET IT.

SAVE THIS. COME BACK TO IT.

— THE EXTRACTION LAW

THIS WEEK

THIS WEEK, USE THE THREE DEBRIEF QUESTIONS AFTER ONE PRESSURE MOMENT.

- ✓ After the next match or high-stakes moment, wait 24 hours
- ✓ Ask: 'What did you learn about yourself? The situation? Someone else in it?'
- ✓ Listen without adding analysis just receive her answer
- ✓ Track her answers over a season: watch the depth grow

HEAR THIS ONCE

EVERY SKILL YOUR ATHLETE BUILDS
UNDER PRESSURE IN VOLLEYBALL IS A SKILL SHE WILL CARRY INTO EVERY HIGH-STAKES MOMENT OF HER ADULT LIFE.

Job interviews, leadership moments, public speaking, critical decisions all carry pressure. The athlete who learned to say 'pressure is a privilege' and mean it is the adult who walks into those rooms differently.

— PRESSURE TRAINING IS LIFE TRAINING · MAZEPERFORMANCE

THE TRANSFER

WHAT SHE BUILDS IN THE PRESSURE OF COMPETITION IS THE FOUNDATION SHE WILL STAND ON FOR THE REST OF HER LIFE.

→ Composure under pressure is a leadership skill it will define her ceiling in every domain

→ The pressure training she gets now is the pressure training most adults never had

→ This is not just sport. This is the long game.

— YOU ARE BUILDING AN ATHLETE. MORE IMPORTANTLY, YOU ARE BUILDING A PERSON.

THE LONG TRANSFER

THE SKILL

Using pressure as a signal rather than a threat is a lifelong competitive advantage.

THE CONTEXT

College applications, career presentations, leadership decisions all carry the same nervous system pattern.

THE HEAD START

She is building this skill now. Most people spend decades trying to develop it from scratch.

06 · THE APPLICATION

N A M I N G T H E T R A N S F E R

IN PRACTICE

After she handles a pressure moment well, connect it explicitly to a future context: 'This is the same skill you'll use in a job interview.'

WATCH FOR

Whether she can identify the pressure skill in non-sports contexts that's the signal it's transferring.

THE SHIFT

From 'I need to do this for volleyball' to 'I'm building this for everything.'

07 · REMEMBER THIS

SAVE THIS · COME BACK TO IT

EVERY TIME SHE CHOOSES PRIVILEGE
OVER PANIC IN A PRESSURE MOMENT,
SHE IS MAKING A DEPOSIT INTO HER FUTURE SELF.

SAVE THIS. COME BACK TO IT.

— THE TRANSFER LAW

THIS WEEK

THIS WEEK, NAME ONE TRANSFER FROM COURT TO LIFE.

- ✓ After a pressure moment she handles well, ask: 'Where else in your life would this skill show up?'
- ✓ Help her name a specific future context: school, friendship, career
- ✓ Celebrate the skill not just the volleyball result
- ✓ Remind her: she is building herself, not just her game
