BELOW THE FOUR COLUMNS — FAQ SECTION

Q: What is the difference between education and MindSystem? A: Courtside Conversations is education — tools, content, and monthly live sessions your families can use at their own pace. MindSystem is a guided behavior modification program — 12 weeks of structured work with custom journals, live group calls, and Gabby actively managing your parent ecosystem. Education gives families information. MindSystem changes behavior.

Q: What does club partner pricing require? A: A minimum enrollment of 150 families for MindSystem Supported. Courtside Conversations club partner pricing has no minimum — clubs can enroll any number of athletes.

Q: Can families upgrade from Courtside Conversations to MindSystem? A: Yes. Families who start with Courtside Conversations can move into MindSystem Supported at any time at the individual family rate.

Q: How are club partner journals customized? A: MindSystem club partner journals are custom designed with your club logo, colors, and team photos on the cover. Each journal is also personalized to the individual athlete or parent based on their program responses.

Q: Who handles access distribution for Courtside Conversations? A: Either Gabby or the club — your choice. Provide your family email list and Gabby distributes access, or Gabby provides the access links and the club distributes them directly.
