

ATHLETE

COMPASS

WORKBOOK

Your scratch paper while you wait for your journal. Mess up. Cross out. Rewrite. That's the point.

HOW TO USE THIS WORKBOOK

- This is not your journal. Your journal is on its way.
- This is the scratch paper you use while you wait — so when your journal arrives, you already know what to write.
- Write messy. Cross things out. Try an answer, hate it, try again. That's exactly what this is for.
- When your journal arrives — transfer your best answers in. Everything here stays private.

MAZE PHASE 1

MINDSET

YOUR REASON

Before anything else — why do YOU keep showing up? Not your parents. Not your coach. You.

1 WHY I KEEP SHOWING UP:

YOUR EMOTIONS ARE INFORMATION

Write one emotion you felt recently during a game or practice. Just one word.

2 ONE EMOTION (ONE WORD):

YOUR INNER VOICE

When does your inner voice get the loudest? The specific moment.

3 MY INNER VOICE IS LOUDEST WHEN:

VISUALIZATION

One skill you want to get sharper at this season. Use this as your nightly visualization target.

4 THE SKILL I WILL VISUALIZE:

YOUR MANTRA

Build your mantra using the three steps below. Mess up here. Rewrite until it sounds like you.

Step 1 — Think of a moment when you felt like the athlete you want to be. What did that feel like in your body?

Circle one or write your own:

Calm

Focused

Fearless

Unstoppable

Clear

Present

S

My word:

Step 2 — When things get hard, what do you want to do instead of shutting down or spiraling?

Circle one or write your own:

Reset

Compete anyway

Stay in it

Keep going

Get back up

My word:

Step 3 — Put them together. Use one of these structures or write your own:

- I am [feeling word] when it matters most.
- I [action] — every single play.
- I am [feeling word] and I [action].

DRAFTS — try it a few times:

MY FINAL MANTRA:

YOUR HEROINE

Choose someone who represents where you want to be — and who has a quality you are building in yourself.

5 MY HEROINE:

6 WHY I CHOSE HER:

7 THE QUALITY SHE HAS THAT I AM BUILDING:

SHARING

Two things to share with your parent. Write them here so you know what you're going to say.

8 MY MANTRA (COPY FROM ABOVE):

9 MY HEROINE + THE QUALITY I'M BUILDING:

MAZE PHASE 2

ANALYZE

SEASON GOALS

What do you want more of this season? Two or three honest answers. Not what sounds good. What's true.

1 I WANT MORE OF THIS SEASON:

THE REPLAY

Think of one hard moment from this season or last. Use the replay method — facts, thoughts, action.

2 WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED (FACTS ONLY):

3 WHAT I WAS THINKING RIGHT BEFORE:

4 WHAT I DID NEXT:

THE HABIT AUDIT TABLE

List 3–5 habits. Be specific about what you actually do — not what you mean to do.

HABIT (What you actually do)	EMOTION (One word)	OUTCOME (What it creates)	GOAL? (Yes / No)

YOUR POSITIVE REPLACEMENTS

For every No habit above — write what you will START doing instead. Positive language only.

No habit 1 → I will:

No habit 2 → I will:

No habit 3 → I will:

CARRY FORWARD

Hold onto your No habits. Write the three that matter most here — they become your building blocks in Zero In.

5 MY THREE MOST IMPORTANT NO HABITS:

MAZE PHASE 3

ZERO IN

THE SATISFACTION WHEEL

Rate your satisfaction (not your talent) in each area from 1–10. Shade from center out.

 If you play a different sport — write your own categories in the boxes.*

YOUR THREE FOCUS AREAS

Look at your season goal from Analyze. Which three categories would move you closest to that goal?

1 MY THREE FOCUS AREAS (AND WHY EACH CONNECTS TO MY GOAL):

STACK IT THREE DEEP

For each focus area — zoom in through three levels.

FOCUS AREA 1

Level 1 — The skill in relation to my goal:

Which area from the wheel and why it matters for your goal

Level 2 — The specific technical focus:

What specifically within that area are you building?

Level 3 — The intangible behind it:

What mental quality makes this skill possible under pressure?

FOCUS AREA 2

Level 1 — The skill in relation to my goal:

Which area from the wheel and why it matters for your goal

Level 2 — The specific technical focus:

What specifically within that area are you building?

Level 3 — The intangible behind it:

What mental quality makes this skill possible under pressure?

FOCUS AREA 3

Level 1 — The skill in relation to my goal:

Which area from the wheel and why it matters for your goal

Level 2 — The specific technical focus:

What specifically within that area are you building?

Level 3 — The intangible behind it:

What mental quality makes this skill possible under pressure?

THE COACH CONVERSATION

Fill in the blanks below. Then practice saying this out loud before you have the conversation.

Coach, this is my goal for the season:

These are the three areas I want to focus on:

1.

2.

3.

What do you think?

SHARING WITH YOUR PARENT

Write your three skills and their intangibles here so you know what to share.

2 THREE SKILLS + INTANGIBLES TO SHARE WITH MY PARENT:

3 QUESTION TO ASK MY PARENT: "IS THERE ANYTHING YOU COULD DO AT HOME TO HELP ME PRACTICE

E

EXECUTE

THE EXECUTION MAP — DRAFT

Build your map here first. When your journal arrives — write your final version there.

Season Goal

From Analyze — what do you want this season?

Team Goal

Ask your coach. Write it here when you know.

My Individual Contribution

How do you personally help the team reach its goal?

My Mantra

Copy from Mindset.

Focus Skill 1 + Intangible

From Zero In.

Focus Skill 2 + Intangible

Focus Skill 3 + Intangible

FOCUS 5 HABITS — DRAFT

Choose up to 5 habits. Positive language only — what you WILL do, not what you'll stop doing.

Habit 1:

Habit 2:

Habit 3:

Habit 4:

Habit 5:

PRE-GAME PROTOCOL — DRAFT

Practice writing your pre-game protocol before your journal arrives.

3 Coach Instructions this week:

These are the specific things your coach told you to focus on.

1-word cues for each:

One word that puts each instruction in your body instantly.

My visualization target:

What skill will you see yourself executing before the game?
